MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Office of External Affairs

SUBJECT: General Counsel's Testimony Before the House Energy and Commerce Subcommittee on Oversight & Investigations

1. As you know, House Energy and Commerce Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee Chairman John D. Dingell has asked the General Counsel to testify at a Subcommittee hearing on Monday, 8 February 1982. The hearing will take place at 10:00 a.m. in room 2123 Rayburn House Office Building. The hearing involves a Securities and Exchange Commission enforcement case, and the General Counsel's testimony is being solicited because Mr. Sporkin headed the SEC's Enforcement Division during the time period of interest to the Subcommittee. Chairman Dingell has assured the Director that no matters involving Mr. Sporkin's present position will be discussed (see attached letter from Chairman Dingell).

2. It is my understanding that your staff has already discussed this matter with the DDCI, and that Admiral Inman has said that there is no objection to the General Counsel's appearance before the Subcommittee, as long as Mr. Sporkin specifies that his testimony is based entirely upon his role at the SEC, and has no connection with his current position.

The Honorable William J. Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

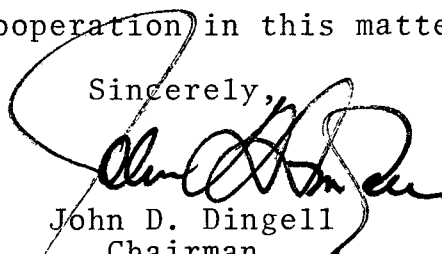

Dear Mr. Casey:

The Oversight and Investigations Subcommittee has been reviewing an enforcement matter at the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC). Stanley Sporkin, the current CIA General Counsel, was the Director of Enforcement at the SEC when this matter was investigated. Therefore, the Subcommittee has requested that Mr. Sporkin testify on this matter on Monday, February 8, 1982. His testimony is important to the Subcommittee's inquiry.

I will assure you that no matters involving his present position will be discussed at the hearing.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

John D. Dingell
Chairman

Subcommittee on
Oversight and Investigations
